Hillsboro Designer Offers Tips for National Decorating Month

Take part in transforming your home and reviving your living space

Hillsboro, OR (Grassroots Newswire) March 18, 2010 – In recognition of National Decorating Month this April, Tonya Giesbers, Hillsboro resident and Designer with Celebrating Home, is offering the following tips for transforming your living space.

- Allow color to "pop:" Bright, bold accent pieces are the perfect way to compliment the softer, more neutral tones of this season's popular paint hues. So try making your statement with artisan vases, throw pillows or lamps. Fresh flowers – in purples and yellows – also coordinate with a wide pallet of colors. Try the Tuscan Wall Pocket with Hanger from Celebrating Home to incorporate these elements into your space.
- Bring in nature: All-natural materials such as slate or bamboo bring an eco-friendly feel to your home. End tables, candle holders and coasters are typically easy to find in natural fibers. Additionally, wicker baskets and woven boxes have an eco-friendly feel and also serve as convenient storage options. Celebrating Home offers natural Seagrass boxes and baskets to obtain this effect.
- Set the mood with candles: Strategically place candles in entrance ways, on coffee tables and on mantles. Tall pillar candles placed in groups lend themselves to a more romantic, dramatic feel, while smaller votives, such as those in the Contempo line from Celebrating Home, dispersed throughout the room can bring serenity to the space.

"The trick to revamping your home décor is to focus on accent pieces that can change the overall feel of the room with minimal work and expense," said Giesbers. "Interesting details give the impression of richness and warmth. They are the key to completing your home's theme."

As a Designer with Celebrating Home, Giesbers provides people in the local area with high-quality products such as home décor, home accents, dining and entertainment pieces as well as gourmet foods. Giesbers offers these products through in-home parties hosted by Hillsboro-area residents and attended by their friends.

"Many people tend to think that major remodeling or redecorating projects are required to change the vibe of their home," added Giesbers. "They may be surprised to find out that just by changing the color spectrum of their tableware or adding some aromatherapy candles to a room that their entire living space takes on a whole new look."
